Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

Performance returns for periods of less than one year are not annualized. The performance figures contained herein are provided on a net of fees basis, before taxes but after management and transaction costs. Returns have been calculated assuming reinvestment of all distributions and is calculated in AUD. Returns do not reflect the brokerage fees or the bid/ask spread that investors pay to buy and sell ETF securities on the Australian Securities Exchange. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate, so you may have a gain or loss when units are sold. Current performance may be higher or lower than that quoted.

Index returns reflect capital gains and losses, income, and the reinvestment of dividends. Index returns are unmanaged and do not reflect the deduction of any fees or expenses.

Index methodology is available at www.mscibarra.com/products/indices/custom/methodology.html

In the factsheets prior to July 2016 the published 'Since Inception' performance figure was calculated from month end.

Unless otherwise noted all information contained herein is that of the SPDR MSCI Australia Select High Dividend Yield Fund.

Performance of an index is not illustrative of any particular investment. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

± Frequent trading of ETFs could significantly increase commissions and other costs such that they may offset any savings from low fees or costs.

You should seek professional advice and consider the product disclosure document, available at www.spdrs.com.au, before deciding whether to acquire or continue to hold units in an ETF. This material should not be considered a solicitation to buy or sell a security.

ETFs trade like stocks, are subject to investment risk, fluctuate in market value and may trade at prices above or below the ETF's net asset value. ETFs typically invest by sampling an index, holding a range of securities that, in the aggregate, approximates the full index in terms of key risk factors and other characteristics. This may cause the fund to experience tracking errors relative to performance of the index.

Investing involves risk including the risk of loss of principal. Diversification does not ensure a profit or guarantee against loss. Sector ETF products are also subject to sector risk and non-diversification risk, which generally results in greater price fluctuations than the overall market.

Risks associated with equity investing include stock values which may fluctuate in response to the activities of individual companies and general market and economic conditions.

Characteristics presented are calculated using the month end market value of holdings, except for beta and standard deviation, if shown, which use month end return values. Averages reflect the market weight of securities in the portfolio. Market data, prices, and dividend estimates for characteristics calculations provided by FactSet Research Systems, Inc.
