Fund Performance is the Total Return, representing the sum of the Growth (or Price) Return and Distribution Return.

Past Performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

Performance returns for periods of less than one year are not annualised and have been calculated based on changes in the net asset value of the Fund rather than the last quoted price. The Performance is shown net of management fees and costs but does not reflect the brokerage fees or the bid/ask spread that investors pay to buy and sell ETF securities on the Australian Securities Exchange. Distributions are assumed to be reinvested under the Dividend Reinvestment Program (DRP). Investment returns and principal value will fluctuate, so you may have a gain or loss when units are sold. Current performance may be higher or lower than that quoted.

The index returns reflect all items of income, gain and loss and the reinvestment of dividends (net of withholding tax) and other income. Index returns are unmanaged and do not reflect the deduction of any fees or expenses.

You should seek professional advice and consider the product disclosure statement and target market determination, available at www.ssga.com, before deciding whether to acquire ETFs trade like stocks, are subject to investment risk, fluctuate in market value and may trade at prices above or below the ETF's net asset value. Investing involves risk including the risk of loss of principal. Diversification does not ensure a profit or guarantee against loss. Sector ETF products are also subject to sector risk and non-diversification risk, which generally results in greater price fluctuations than the overall market. Equity securities may fluctuate in value and can decline significantly in response to the activities of individual companies and general market and economic conditions. Investing in foreign domiciled securities may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, withholding taxes, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from economic or political instability in other nations.

Investments in emerging or developing markets may be more volatile and less liquid than investing in developed markets and may involve exposure to economic structures that are generally less diverse and mature and to political systems which have less stability than those of more developed countries. Characteristics presented are calculated using the month end market value of holdings, except for beta and standard deviation, if shown, which use month end return values.
